

Think of It This Way

Table of Contents

- Introduction: Welcome to Informal Jewish Education page v
- 1. Holiness Detector: Think you're holy? Step right up and let our machine check you out. Hope you've been good. page 2
- 2. Take a Smell Test: Mmmmm... smells like a breath of spring! But do you say a brachah on that smell? Give your nose a work-out in this chapter. page 10
- 3. Time to Pick Teams: Is "don't eat pig" more like: "don't eat chametz on Pesach," "don't steal" or "ma'aser sheni"? An exercise in mitzvah categorization. page 18
- 4. The Lost Gallery: This puppy followed me home – can I keep him? Found a peanut, found a peanut – can I eat it? When does hashavat aveidah apply in a lost and found? page 28
- 5. Torah Town: Redesign the map of Jerusalem by pencilling in your favorite Biblical characters, Torah commandments, Jewish foods. page 36
- 6. Parental Guidance: Bring your parents to class when we study this chapter, and discover that when they tell you to sit up straight you might not have to listen... page 42
- 7. Watch Your Step: Satellite images from around the world give us a heavenly perspective on the obligation of ma'akeh. page 50
- 8. Name That Wine: Wine – it's not just for kiddush anymore. Fill up a few glasses and bang out some traditional Jewish melodies as we learn about wine in our culture. page 58
- 9. Our Letters are Numbered: The truth about gematria. It's not a joke, it's not a game. It's a well-defined midrashic literary technique. page 72
- 10. Tza'ari: Nobody's perfect. But when we mess up, Judaism teaches us to say "sorry" - and really mean it. In this chapter we play a game of sincere apology. page 84
- 11. King Meets King of Kings: Analyzing the blessing of Malchuyot on Rosh HaShanah. The first king of Israel discusses the king of the world. page 100
- 12. Total Recall: A memory game about the second special blessing of Rosh HaShanah – Zichronot. page 110
- 13. Shofar Music: How can the same sound evoke joy, awe, fear, guilt, glory and history? Recordings of other music help us understand the power of the shofar. page 120
- 14. Punctuation Generator: Raise a "." if you agree; a "?" if you've always wondered about that; and show a "..." if you'd like more information. page 128
- 15. A Prayer is Worth a Thousand Words: Illustrating the siddur helps visualize, understand and relate to what we're saying. page 146

16. Give a Little Bit: What if you donated $100 to your community? Would you want to be lauded for your charity, or are you happy with modest recognition? Here's an exercise that balances the need to thank with the virtue of humility. page 162

17. How High is That Candle in the Window? When can the Chanukah menorah be placed half an inch off the ground? When you're lighting it in a three storey doll house. The intricacies of menorah placement. page 178

18. Guess Who's Coming to Dinner: The table's set with wine, poison, and a hamburger on a sesame seed bun. All you've got to do is figure out who the guests are. page 194

19. Guess What's Coming to Dinner: What's for dinner? Well, we're having "tavshil shel gevinah" for a main course, a side dish of "chezkat chalavi" and for dessert there's "pareve and milk." It's all spelled out right there on the refrigerator. page 208

20. Bible Hunt: "A quick escape! I'll bet she wouldn't try that in our shul – they're way too high! See Joshua 2:15." With Tanakh in hand, kids set out on a shul treasure hunt. page 222

21. Spin the Dreidel: Here's a new twist on a holiday favorite that re-introduces the topic of Hellenization into the Chanukah story. Play dreidel but watch the letters: are you a complete Hellenist, a total isolationist, or somewhere in between? page 230

22. Tanakh Murder Mystery: Ever wonder why there are so many murders in Tanakh but not a single detective? Don't you sometimes wish they would give you a chance to figure out whodunnit? Now you have a chance to take on some of the Bible's most dastardly murderers! page 250

23. Connections: We're all responsible for each other. Even if that means feeding somebody lunch or making sure he doesn't fall into an open man-holes. Three exercises in areivut. page 268

24. My Magen David: What does the Jewish star mean to you? Here are 15 triangles – pick six which describe your Jewish identity and put together your personal magen david. page 278

25. Animals of the Book: Welcome to our Biblical and Talmudic zoo. We've got Shimshon's lion, Elisha's bears and Rabbi Akiva's fish - there are footprints everywhere! page 290

26. Sefarim Surveys: Geared towards advanced students, this chapter introduces over 100 books in the Jewish library to familiarize students with the beit midrash. page 324

27. Signpost to Jewish history: How far is it to Rashi? Which way to Rabbi Meir? Build a signpost in your classroom to teach dates and locations of Jewish scholars. page 342

28. Saving God's Names: This chapter presents a detailed treatment of a Biblical law: the prohibition of erasing God's names. Turn on your computer but steer clear of the delete button. page 348

29. Every Generation Leaves Egypt: How to make the Pesach seder exciting for children, while ensuring that adults fulfill the commandment to teach the story of Egypt. page 364

30. Short Programs and Puzzlers: Three short and simple activities to do at home; five brain teasers to challenge your yiddishe kop. page 382

Coda: Tips on constructing your own programs and exercises. page 402

Photograph and Art Credits page 404